IN THE COURTS.

Cases Called Up and Disposed Of at Yesterday's Session.

The time of the District Court yesterday was taken up for the most part with the mechanic's lien case of Holmes, Lindsey & Co. vs. Anderson, Baker and Fourshee. The jury went out late in the afternoon and up to 7 o'clock had not reported. They hung to the jury room in a way that caused Bailiff Greenhaw to shake his head with an air of deep wisdom and predict an all-night session. At 9 o'clock, however, the tapping of the bell brought back all parties to the courtroom. The verdict was in favor of plaintiffs for $1536.46, the amount claimed. The companion case, that of Anderson, the owner of the building, against Fourshee & Baker, the contractors, and the sureties on their builder's bond, was brought up in the afternoon and a jury empaneled for it. The trial will take place this morning.

Henry Garfias was allowed $90 fees as interpreter. H. L. Leonard, C. A. Luke and C. F. Shurtliff were excused from the jury for the term. A special venire of twelve jurors was ordered. Permission to file amended answer was taken advantage of by the defendants in the local Tempe water suit.

There were no documents of any importance filed yesterday in the Recorder's office.
